

Kenneth D. Smith, son of Doyle and Arlene Smith, was born and raised in Heber. He graduated from Wasatch High School in 1962. The next 2½ years were spent at B.Y.U. which ended with his enlistment in the Utah Air National Guard in 1965.

Sharon D. Smith was born in Springville to Elden Norris and Dorothy Dibble. Sharon lived in Provo, Salt Lake, and Bountiful, where she graduated from Bountiful High School in 1962. Sharon worked at the Deseret News after completing High School.

Ken and Sharon met on a Sunday afternoon in Liberty Park, and were married 5 weeks later.

At the time of their marriage Ken was employed at Hecla Mining Company. In 1969, Ken went to work for Stauffer Chemical Company as Plant Manager of its Phoston Operation. After 4 years with Stauffer, he bought into Ritchies Chevrolet where he was the Manager until it was sold in 1974. In July of 1974, he opened Big O Tire.

The Smith's have 4 children. Robyn, 19, graduated from Wasatch High School where she was an honor student, cheerleader, and Sr. Class Vice-President. Robyn then attended 1 year at Utah Tech College at Orem on a full tuition scholarship. She is now in the Radiology Training Program at Utah Valley Hospital. She loves skiing, fishing, and most other sports.

Alyson, 15, is a Freshman at Wasatch High School, where she is a J.V. Cheerleader. Alyson is involved in gymnastics, dancing, water and snow skiing and is interested in all sports.

Stefany, 13, is in 8th grade at Wasatch Middle School. Stefany is an honor student and loves to sing, ski, and tend small children.

Wylder, 9, is in 4th grade at J. R. Smith Elementary. He likes hunting, fishing, hiking, building hideouts, and dirt biking. He plays soccer, baseball, and loves to ski.

Ken, Sharon and their children have received many blessings from their activity in the church. As teachers and officers in many Ward and Stake organizations, they have been able to take advantage of many choice experiences.

As a family, the Smiths' enjoy Physical Fitness, picnicing, B.Y.U. sports, and vacations at Bear Lake.

New Officers Elected To Wasatch County IHC Hospital Board of Trustees

The Administration and the Board of Trustees of Wasatch County IHC Hospital have recently announced the election of new officers for the Board for 1989. The Board's responsibility is to represent the community to the hospital administration and hospital interests to the community.

Named as the new Chairman is George Holmes. Holmes is a dairy farmer in the Wasatch County area. Elected as vice-chairman is Sharron Winterton. Winterton is also a dairy farmer in Wasatch County. Named as the treasurer is Joe Rasband. Rasband is employed with Tri-Valley Distributing.

All of the new officers were nominated and voted in by their peers, who make up the hospital's Board of Trustees. 17 May 89 sued by a CHP trooper but took off again and was stopped by a second trooper.

Theft charges against Frank Montoya have been dropped. He was accused of driving a pickup truck without permission of the owner.

Two counts of theft, third degree felonies, have been filed against felony theft, and one count of third degree felony burglary have been filed against Rex Sweatfield. Items reported taken in suspected theft cases in the Heber City area including a television set missing from a motel guest room, were allegedly found in a local motel basement where Sweatfield had set up living quarters.

Police Report

Businesses Burglarized

A tee-shirt shop and a general store in Heber Village were burglarized sometime during the weekend, according to Heber City Police Chief Jimmy Joel Matthews. The suspects broke windows in the buildings to enter, he said.

A list of the items missing from the tee-shirt shop is not yet available. The other shop owner reported the following items taken: a badger rug worth $462; four pairs of Indian earrings, made of arrowheads and porcupine quills; a Levi jacket with a bighorn sheep stitched on the back; and a leather buckskin shirt, size 44.

A Wasatch County woman reported she had taken her 1980 Buick to a local wrecking yard for repairs.

the steering wheel had been torn off, the steering column was gone, the motor was partially stripped, and the seat covers and dashboard were damaged.

Wasatch Mountain State Park employees found a golf cart, belonging to the park, submerged in a pond the morning of May 6. They reported the cart had broken down the previous day and been left on the green overnight.

A Woodland resident reported on May 10 that someone had cut the bolts on dimple bands, which hold sprinkling systems together. As a result Sunrise Irrigation Company water flowed onto private property. County deputies are still investigating the matter.
